Rugs are also the latest creative endeavor from the hospitality-driven New York practice Ward + Gray. Founders Christie Ward and Staver Gray have imagined seven different styles, all of them hand-knotted in India or Pakistan, for the studio's inaugural product launch. Blue Moon, Bergamot, Forsythia, and Terracotta by the Sea flaunt an appealingly well-worn finish, but Winter, Autumn, and Dune are distinguished by New Zealand wool overlays reminiscent of embroidered gowns.
