

BETWEEN THE LINES

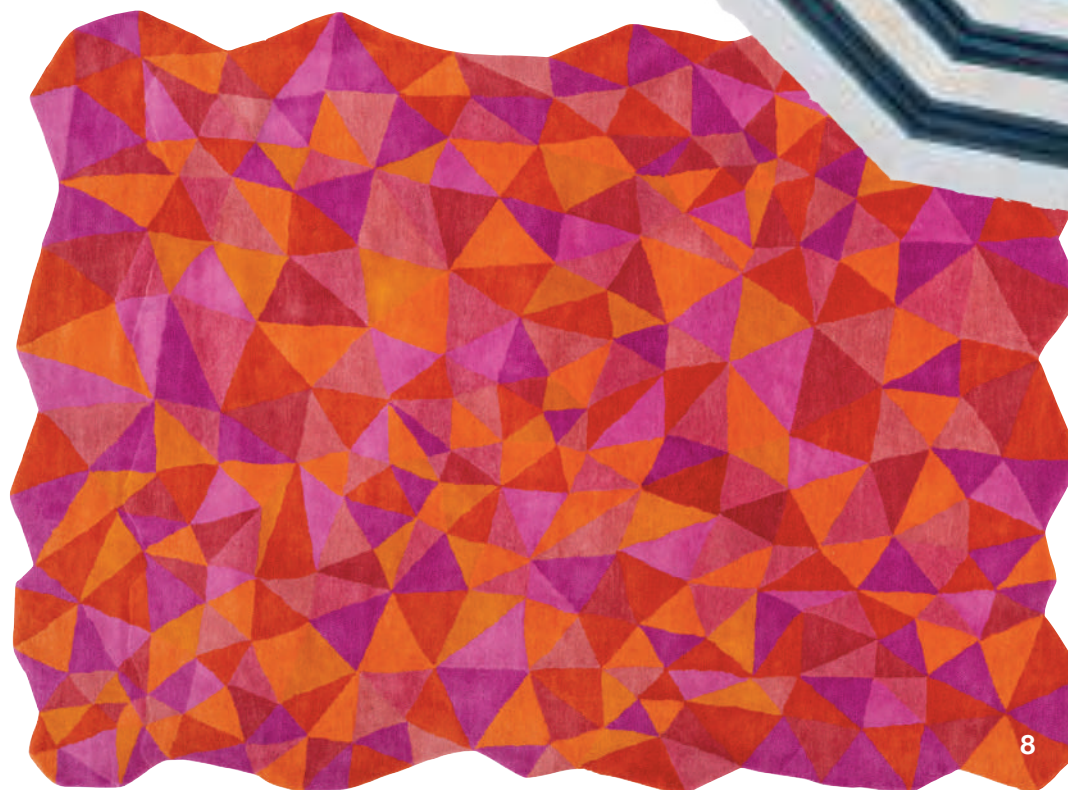

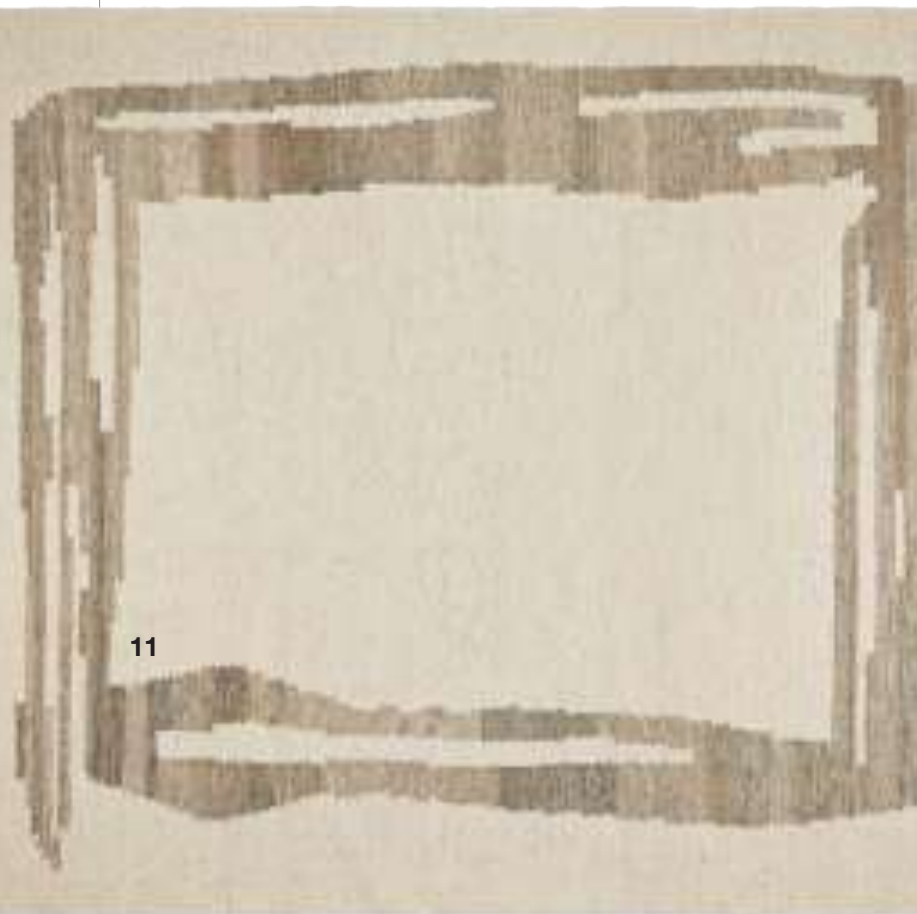

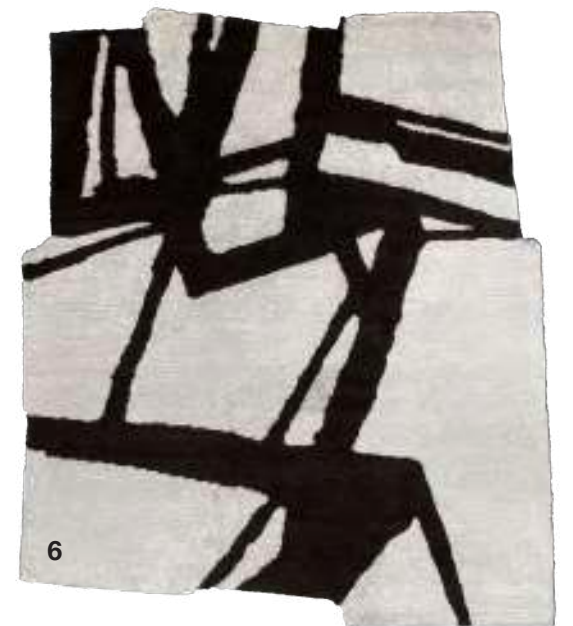

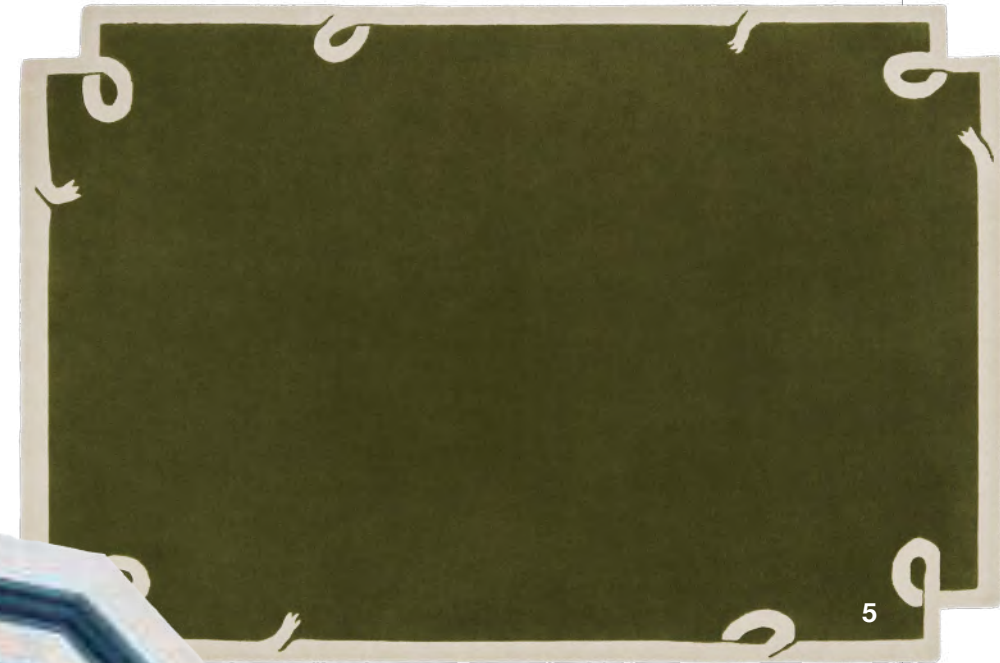

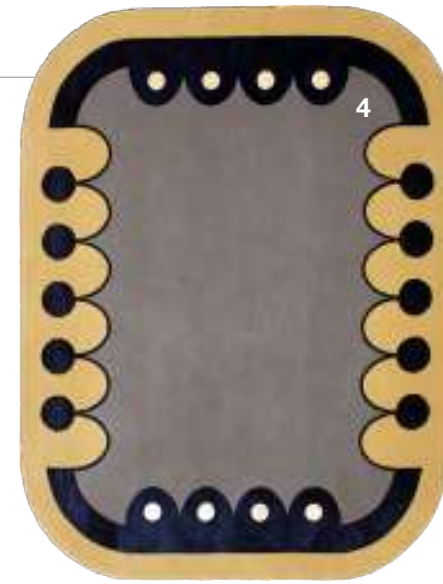

LINEAR PATTERNS AND DISTINCTIVE BORDERS ADD PERSONALITY UNDERFOOT
BY MARY FITZGERALD

AS SEEN IN
CTC&G
Connecticut Cottages and Gardens

GRIDWORK

- 1. Rosemary Hallgarten
Inspired by woven baskets Hallgarten found on a trip to Greece, Coco Stripe in 100-percent wool is enhanced with hand-dyed and knotted ombre fringe. rosemaryhallgarten.com.
- 2. New Moon
Hand knotted in Tibetan wool, Block Sample is inspired by the pangden aprons of Tibetan women. newmoonrugs.com.
- 3. Jennifer Manners
A classic herringbone pattern is given a modern, graphic spin in a combination of hand knotted Himalayan wool with bamboo silk. jennifermanners.co.uk.
- 4. Jan Kath
From the Common Threads collection, the Watteau 3 rug in wool, silk and nettle can be customized in color, size, format and materials. jan-kath.com.
- 5. Rugs USA
Creator Arvin Olano designed the Brega Geometric rug with a minimalistic motif. It is handmade in high-quality New Zealand wool. rugsusa.com.
- 6. Ashley Stark Home
Bold geometric lines and high-contrast colors define the Arvin rug, hand knotted in 100-percent wool. ashleystarkhome.com.
- 7. Soho Home
In a wool blend, the Jarrett rug is striking in a Rust colorway with contrasting high and low pile to create depth and texture. sohohome.com.
- 8. Safavieh
From the Mirage collection, this rug is hand loomed in dark gray banana art silk and cotton. safavieh.com.
- 9. Annie Selke
Designed by Marie Flanigan, the Everett rug is super soft in New Zealand wool in ivory and gray with a braided fringe. annieselke.com.
- 10. Obakki
The contemporary Zapotec design of the Oaxacan rug is created with color blocking and bold stripes. Made in Mexico, every sale goes toward supporting local artisans and their communities. obakki.com.
- 11. Loloï
Inspired by classic Moroccan rugs, the Alice Collection is a collaboration between Chris Loves Julia and Loloï rugs. Durable, graphic and soft underfoot, Alice features a high-low texture with warm, earthy colors. Power-loomed in Turkey in a polyester pile, each rug is finished with a subtle fringe. loloirugs.com.
- 12. Kravet
Made in India, the Toven rug in Cloud is hand knotted in nylon and polyethylene for durability. Available in custom sizes. kravet.com.

BORDER LINES

1. Ward + Gray

NYC interior design firm Ward + Gray created Dune, a rug inspired by free-form lines drawn in the sand. The flat weave rug is made from a blend of hemp and jute with 100-percent hand knotted New Zealand wool shag pile overlay. wardandgray.com.

2. Élitis

Available in six colorways, the handmade Yasabai rug is made from 100-percent jute that is braided and backed with cotton. elitis.fr.

3. Studio Four

A hand woven dhurrie in silk, Ponti is shown here in the Salvia colorway. studiofournyc.com.

4. Erik Lindström

Arcade, designed by Erik Lindström, is a hand tufted cut pile rug in wool and silk bordered in an Art Deco style motif. eriklindstrom.com.

5. Nordic Knots

A collection of rugs designed by Giancarlo Valle includes Loops Green with a unique cut-out corner design. Handmade in small batches, they are crafted from soft New Zealand wool. nordicknots.com.

6. JD Staron

From the Pure collection of eco-friendly rugs produced without chemicals, dye or soap, this rug begins as handspun yarn from free-grazing sheep and is composed of Mulberry silk and natural wool with an abstract edge. jdstaron.com.

7. Kyle Bunting

In cream, indigo and slate, the Cannes rug displays a banded triple decagon design in hair-on-hide. kylebunting.com.

8. Apadana

Laura Gottwald's collection for Apadana includes Modern Fantasia.

The Persian wool rug is composed of asymmetrical triangles highlighted with an irregular border. apadanarugsandcarpets.com.

9. Rhyme Studio

NYC's Rhyme Studio uses traditionally spun and hand-tufted Irish wool to create organic rugs. The latest grouping, Black Sheep, includes Geometry in deep brown undyed wool. rhymestudio.com.

10. Lucy Tupu

From the Duncan collection, the Picton rug is outlined with a playful frame in a contrasting color, and is inspired by the bright colors and shapes of the '60s and '70s. lucytupu.com.

11. Arhaus

Handwoven in India, the wool Corso rug from Arhaus features an abstract and textural outline design. arhaus.com.