

2023 GOOD DESIGN AWARDS

Our annual list of the best
(or should we say good-est?)
products of 2023.

WHAT MAKES DESIGN GOOD?

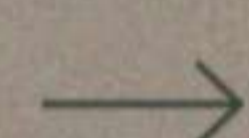

Color, material, style—or the giggle that comes with a pair of kitchen mitts shaped like magic beans? For us, good design happens at the intersection of form and function, and these 50 home products—chosen by Domino editors and an esteemed group of guest editors—will make your life easier and look great while doing it.

BEST WINDOW TREATMENT CAFÉ CURTAINS, EVERHEM

Price Varies

Café curtains let in sunlight while also giving you privacy (howdy, neighbor!). With more than a dozen customization options, you can channel a cottage kitchen or Paris bistro in a few clicks.

SHOP

ORGANIZATION HERO BOLT HOOKS, HAY

$20 for 2

Just the right size for holding more substantial items—bath towels, coats, and even a cutting board—these glossy, powder-coated babies make color-coding cool again.

SHOP

CHOICE CERAMIC TILE NATURAL PRESS CERAMIC TILE, FIRECLAY

Price Varies

Single-fired in the U.S. to reduce cost (prices start at $16 per square foot) and carbon emissions, these tiles come in 24 colors—from zesty chartreuse to milky amethyst—and 15 shapes.

SHOP

BEST FLOOR COVERING DUNE RUG, WARD + GRAY

Starts at $2,925

Flat-woven, blended with hemp, and featuring a hand-knotted New Zealand wool shag pile overlay, this jute recalls a carefree day at the beach tracing circles in the sand.

SHOP

COOLEST KEY CATCHER SWELL CATCHALL, HELLER

$69

RISD grad (and California surfer) Anna Dawson dreamed up this groovy catchall for coats, keys, and other everyday items. Bonus: It's made from recycled plastic. Hella cool!

SHOP

WILDEST WALLPAPER TURINI COCOA MULTI WALL COVERING, BACKDROP

$48/yard

No, you're not seeing things: The walls are moving. The playful, peripatetic pattern (named after a winding road in the French Alps) is both zippy and zen.
